1st ANNUAL SENIOR SAFETY FAIR ANNOUNCED

KANKAKEE, IL –Kankakee County State's Attorney Jim Rowe is hosting a free Senior Safety Fair for Kankakee County seniors (60 years and up) on June 15th to correspond with World Elder Abuse Awareness Day. The Fair will be held at the Quality Inn in Bradley, Illinois and will include no fewer than 10 live presentations ranging from elder abuse awareness and prescription safety to a Bradley police K9 presentation and senior self-defense. In addition to nearly 50 vendors with free giveaways, seniors will be treated to free chair massages, glucose testing and blood pressure screenings, and vision tests. Every senior who registers before June 12th will receive a free guest bag upon arrival and a free hot lunch.

To register, seniors should call 815-936-5820 or email EOverton@K3County.net. There is no cost to attend.
